Visitor, you are very welcome here.

If you have questions or spiritual needs, our pastor would be glad to meet with you. May our Lord's Word be a blessing to all who gather in His name.

For those caring for young children or who have difficulty standing for the prayers, hymns, or other parts of the service, please know that you are most welcome to sit as you find need or comfort.

Don't be embarrassed if your children make noise during worship—all children do. We encourage families to worship together but there is a nursery that parents can use in the basement, if needed.

Holy Communion

The coming of Christ in the flesh at Bethlehem was a concrete outward act of God in humble means that was despised by the world. The flesh and blood coming of Christ in the sacrament is also a concrete outward act of God in humble means that can be despised. Rather than despise it, however, God would have us delight in it!

With deep thankfulness for His gifts to us here we also express our deep desire to celebrate it according to God's will. Since this includes oneness in the faith we confess (doctrine), guests who desire to commune are asked to speak with pastor first. Anyone is welcome to come forward with arms crossed to receive a blessing.

On the Incarnation

Incarnate means "in the flesh."

This word confesses that our Lord Jesus Christ took on human flesh for us and for our salvation.

We believe, teach, and confess that now, since the incarnation, each nature in Christ does not exist by itself. . . . These two natures [divine and human] are so united that they make up one single person, in which the divine and the received human nature are and exist at the same time. So now, since the incarnation, there belongs to the entire person of Christ personally not only His divine nature, but also His received human nature. So without His divinity, and also without His humanity, the person of Christ or the incarnate Son of God is not complete. We meant the Son of God who has received flesh and become man. Therefore, Christ is not two distinct persons, but one single person, even though two distinct natures are found in Him, unconfused in their natural essence and properties.

The Solid Declaration of the Formula of Concord
Article VIII. The Person of Christ, paragraph 11.

Prayers for Worship

Before communion: O Lord, our God, in Holy Baptism You have given us new birth and granted us the remission of sins. Make us ready to receive the most holy body and blood of Christ for the forgiveness of all our sins, and grant us grateful hearts that we may give thanks to You, O Father, to Your Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.

After communion: Almighty and everlasting God, we thank and praise You for feeding us the life-giving body and blood of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ. Send us Your Holy Spirit, that, having with our mouths received the holy Sacrament, we may by faith obtain and eternally enjoy Your divine grace, the forgiveness of sins, unity with Christ, and life eternal; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE NICENE CREED

Having heard the Word, what do you believe?

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father, and He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the prophets. And I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life ✝ of the world to come. Amen.

The Sermon

CHORAL OFFERTORY

The Wexford Carol.....arr. Howard Helvey

*Good people all, this Christmas time, consider well and bear in mind
What our good God for us has done in sending His beloved Son.
With Mary holy we should pray, to God with love this Christmas Day;
In Bethlehem upon that morn, there was a blessed Messiah born.
Near Bethlehem did shepherds keep their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep;
To whom God's angel did appear, which put the shepherds in great fear.
"Prepare and go," the angels said, "To Bethlehem, be not afraid.
For there you'll find, this happy morn, a princely Babe, sweet Jesus born."
With thankful heart and joyful mind, the shepherds wen the babe to find,
And as God's angel had foretold, they did our Savior Christ behold.
Within a manger He was laid and by His side a virgin maid,
Attending on the Lord of Life, who came to earth to end all strife.*

give us this day our daily bread;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.
