Visitor, you are very welcome here.

Please contact us with questions or prayer requests, and come worship with us again. Our pastor would be very glad to meet with you. May our Lord's Word be a blessing to all who gather in His name.

For those caring for young children or who have difficulty standing for the prayers, hymns, or other parts of the service, please know that you may sit as you find need or comfort.

Don't be embarrassed if your children make noise during worship—all children do. We encourage families to worship together. If needed for children under three years old, there is a nursery available in the basement during service and Bible class.

Out of courtesy to your brothers and sisters, please turn off your cell phone ringer and refrain from leaving or entering the sanctuary during the readings and the prayers.

Holy Communion

We welcome to the Lord's Table members of Our Savior and members of sister congregations of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Pastor Gregory would be very glad to instruct you so that you can confess Jesus Christ with us and receive His holy body and blood for forgiveness, life, and salvation.

Spiritual Care

Individual confession and absolution, spiritual care, and pastoral counsel are available by appointment. Please contact the church office to schedule a time.

Christian Education

Prayer for Worship

On the suffering of Jesus Christ: O Jesus, my Jesus, how great is Your love, which You have shown me by Your bitter suffering! You are the only-begotten Son of God; You are the Lamb without spot, the Lord of Glory, the Most Holy, who did no sin; and yet You surrender Yourself into the most shameful death and the cruelest suffering for me, an unrighteous person, a sinner, and a child of death. Oh, how great is Your mercy!

Truly, this is love, this is mercy, that by Your bitter suffering I obtain life, grace, and the forgiveness of all my sins. The chastisement that brings me peace and delivers me from punishment is on You.

Place this suffering before my eyes, that, wherever I may be, it may be my delight, and enshrine it in my heart. I know that I have been pardoned and am reconciled with God, for I believe that You, O Jesus, very Lamb of God, without spot and without blemish, have been slain for me and have poured out Your heart's blood for me. Your blood is the true sacrificial blood, the blood of reconciliation, the blood of purification, the blood of atonement.

O Jesus, be my comfort, my joy, my consolation, my defense, now and in my last hour. Amen.

THE PROPER PREFACE

It is truly meet, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who accomplished the salvation of mankind by the tree of the cross that, where death arose, there life also might rise again and that the serpent who overcame by the tree of the garden might likewise by the tree of the cross be overcome. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

THE SANCTUS

Isaiah 6:3; Matthew 21:9

Who comes in the name of the Lord.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

DISTRIBUTION HYMN – TUNE: LSB 637 & TEXT: RMH

- 1 Strike David's harp that long has silent lain.
See, David's Son and Heir begins His reign.
Lost, royal music rises from the past
And ancient psalms wear flesh and blood at last.
- 2 Here is the true Sweet Singer, Israel,
Who conjures life from death and muzzles hell,
Whose music makes the sin-mad spirit calm;
He is the Harper and He is the Psalm.
- 3 And He the Harp which on a tree was hung,
Stretched taut for us, past pitch of terror strung
That all our sins might pluck from Him a song
Of pity infinite, immense, and strong.
- 4 Strike David's Harp and hear Him, singing, rise
With ringing strings triumphant through the skies,
That, tuned to Him, our souls may join His song
Through life, through death, through endless ages long.

DISTRIBUTION HYMN—TUNE & TEXT: LSB 837

Lift high the cross,
The love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore
His sacred name!

- 1 Come, Christians, follow where our Captain trod,
Our King victorious, Christ, the Son of God. *Refrain
- 2 Led on their way by this triumphant sign,
The host of God in conqu'ring ranks combine. *Refrain
- 3 All newborn soldiers of the Crucified
Bear on their brows the seal of Him who died. *Refrain
- 4 O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree,
As Thou hast promised, draw us all to Thee. *Refrain
- 5 Let ev'ry race and ev'ry language tell
Of Him who saves our lives from death and hell. *Refrain
- 6 So shall our song of triumph ever be:
Praise to the Crucified for victory! *Refrain

Holy Week

With the Augsburg Confession, we focus on the person and work of our Lord Jesus Christ in His state of humiliation.

Our churches teach that the Word—that is, the Son of God—took on human nature in the womb of the blessed virgin Mary. So there are two natures, divine and human, inseparably joined in the unity of His person, one Christ, true God and true man, who was born of the virgin Mary, truly suffered, was crucified, died, and was buried, that He might reconcile the Father to us and be a sacrifice not only for original guilt but also for all actual sins of mankind.

The Augsburg Confession, Article III, 1–3

Hymn

The hymn stanza may be sung or spoken.

Now He who bore for mortals' sake
The cross and all its pains
And chose a servant's form to take,
The King of glory reigns.
Hosanna to the Savior's name
Till heaven's rafters ring,
And all the ransomed host proclaim:
"Behold, behold your King!"

LSB 444:4

Verse for Meditation

He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Philippians 2:8b

Daily Prayer

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Prayers for Others and Ourselves

As children of the heavenly Father, we are bold to pray.
